PROFILE OF BMA

Baroda Management Association (BMA), one of the most active Management Association affiliated to All India Management Association (AIMA), New Delhi has been playing a pivotal role in the promotion of value oriented management movement in Western India since its inception in 1957. AIMA in the year 1988, instituted "Best Local Management Award Contest". This was to recognize the endeavors of the Local Management Chapters at a National Level. BMA has received this Local Management Award Seventeen times, the most recent one being in 2018. Its main objective is to promote exchange to knowledge and experience of sound management principles and practices. It caters to the management development needs by organizing various innovative short and long-term Management Development Programs, Seminars, Career Development Courses, Publications, Programs tailored to meet the specific needs of individual organizations and by providing special services to the Small Scale Industries. The organizations ranging from Small Scale Industries to the large scale Public Sector Units avail our services in terms of Management Development Programs (MDP) and In House Training.

An annual feature and a significant area in BMA's progress has been the 32nd consecutive times Annual Management Conventions (AMC) held at Baroda regularly since 1988.

OBJECTIVES

Promote exchange of knowledge and experience of sound management principles and practices: Institute and establish scholarships, grants, rewards and prizes to encourage the study of the art and science of management: to co-operate with any institution, organization or establishment whose objectives are similar to those of the Association: Provide members and community at large expert advice and services or specific management in India and abroad.

To achieve its various objectives; BMA functions through various sub-committees such as; Annual Management Convention Committee, Evening Talk Committee, Healthcare Development Committee, Industry Institute Initiative, Young Managers Development Committee, Management Round Table on IT, CSR, Power, Indirect Taxes, HRM, Patents and Trademarks Committee etc.
