From the Desk of President

There are few institutions that start to peak, yet again, after almost six decades. BMA has been in forefront of all management institutes in this country. Being a pioneering organization, it has paved way for many similar setups to come up. However, while many such organizations reach a point of saturation, BMA is riding a fresh, new wave of enthusiasm, positivity and raring to move ahead with a festive fervor. Like all others associated, I feel great joy and privileged to be part of this momentum and to be able to contribute as the office bearer for the year 2014-15.

BMA has a strong foundation laid by formidable teams of office bearers in the past. This was both a challenge and opportunity for a young team of 2014 office bearers and the secretariat. While on one hand we had to live up to the high standards of performance, we also had the freedom to take ample advantage of this platform to launch new ideas, bring about new trends and take new initiatives. And along with the team, we did just that. We have laid another storey to the growing tower of BMA.

We realized in the beginning of the year that it is imperative that BMA niches out its own identity and becomes self sustaining. This is not a short term goal but it has to be a systematic programme. The first step was to identify the inherent strengths of BMA and leverage that into building a plan that will help to make it one of the most complete and formidable institution. This was the basis of all actions, decisions and initiatives taken during this year.

Some of the key areas that we managed to address were:

- Creation of the Advisory Board for Continued Development (ABCD) which will help to create a self-sustaining model for BMA
- Addressed membership needs and revamped the same by introducing additional benefits
- Initiated a new concept of academic partners attracting the youth towards BMA
- Associated with other organizations and paving a new way of strategic alliances
- Introduced new events to connect to masses as well as corporate sectors.
- Invited industry leaders to join BMA by providing them an appropriate platform of activities that they could take up and get involved
- Strengthening the highly performing secretariat and giving all freedom to perform

Events:

1. Actual event days under various committees for the year- 125
2. Round Table Conference (RTC)
  - RTC On Lean
  - RTC on Innovation
3. MDP's: Considering both In-house and Open Programme, MDP was organized every week
4. New Academic Partner (Management)
  - (A) Parul University
  - (B) Inhouse as Creative Partner
5. 26th AMC- Annual Management Convention- Flourishing in Borderless World was spread over 3 days with Golf Classic Tournament as Curtain Raiser, CEO forum Samvad with Mr. Keyur Joshi, Co-Founder and Chief Commercial Officer of Makemytrip.com as Precursor to AMC.
6. BMA Partnered with other NGO's- GESIA, ICAI, NASSCOM, AAMPLE, SSA, PRINCETON
7. Certification courses were revived
  - Certificate Course on Lean Six Sigma
  - Spoken English and Personality Development
8. W@W Under WDC was initiated along with workshop on "How Savvy you are on Social Media?"
9. Special session on Dining Etiquette was organized for Kids.
10. Magnetic Card for members of BMA was launched during AMC
11. Book Launch by PINNACLE:
  - Pakistan Conflict- Parameters and Possibilities by Dr. Amit Dholakia
  - MY Journey So Far by Kajal Oza Vaidya
  - A Hundred Lives for you by Abhisar Sharma
12. For the first time Organ Donation Awareness Camp of Shatayu Foundation by Helath Care Committee
13. Co-operative Seminar on Agriculture- The Role of Soil, Seeds, and Fertilizers in Improving the output in Agriculture.
14. 3 Special Talks By Friday Evening Talks Committee

It is now required that someone provides stability to these initiatives and takes it forward towards its goal. As the master planner and meticulous Alok Desai takes over the presidential reigns, the whole plan fits in perfectly.

The year spent at the helm of BMA has given me enthusiasm an extra boost and brought me closer to BMA on the emotional front as well. I look forward to continue this association and contribute towards the wholesome development and growth of BMA.
